LABOR COUNCIL ALL TORN UP.

Convention Bolted by Jim Gray Bolted.

Socialists Get the Lead and Lose It.

Disorderly Affair Begins and Ends Nowhere—"Herald" Spy Put Out.

As predicted in The Times yesterday morning, the Socialists put the kibosh on the Jim Gray gang of the Council of Labor at its last night, and the convention broke up in a turmoil.

Gray and Craig of San Pedro bolting the convention and being followed by those who call themselves the conservative element of the organization.

The "wireless" route that never fails, the proceedings were exactly as here set forth.

A Herald man deceived and attempted to betray the unions, but the fraud was detected and he was thrown out without ceremony.

Unions said they expected The Times to find out their secrets, but they did not suppose that the Herald, which has all along been looked upon as their only true newspaper friend, would give them away.

The Herald spy, they said, could not have got into the meeting unless he had been given the password, and the password was given to him by a Herald man.

There was a long and warm debate to whether any proxies should be voted, but the meeting of the 19th inst., that proxy was permitted, but an attempt was made to rescind the action.

Speaker Smiley jumped to his feet and said: "Are we going to adopt the rotten policy of the Council of Labor?"

"I object to such language being used on this floor," yelled Craig of San Pedro, and the speaker was ejected.

"Out of order," yelled another, amidst the rat-tat-tat of the chairman's gavel, and cries of "Sit down," from the Socialistic contingent.

After Jim Gray had spoken for the voting of proxies on the plan that all parts of the hall, the motion was made by the Socialists to rescind the action, the proxies finally were allowed.

Then Gray got the floor and said he thought it was a mistake for organized labor to enter into politics, and that it would mean the destruction of the labor unions.

"I move we adjourn," shouted Gray. And the motion was carried by all parts of the hall, the motion was made by the Socialists to rescind the action, the proxies finally were allowed.

RECEPTION TO SENATORS SPEECHMAKING AT THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.
Senator Perkins Sent His Regards. Senator Perkins and Congressman McLachlan Were Guests of Honor—The Mayor Was Chairman.
There was a fair attendance at the reception given last evening in the Chamber of Commerce in honor of United States Senators Thomas H. Bard and George C. Perkins and Representative James McLachlan. Senator Perkins sent a telegram that it would be impossible for him to attend on account of a previous engagement in San Francisco. Senator Bard and Representative McLachlan were escorted to the Chamber of Commerce building by a committee composed of Charles H. Toll, W. G. Kerkhoff, W. H. Snyder, M. P. Snyder, Frank Coulter, Arthur W. Kinney and President F. Q. Story and Vice-Presidents F. K. Rule and Homer Laughlin. During the evening about 100 guests were present. The reception was held in the Chamber of Commerce building, which was decorated with flowers and bunting. The guests were seated at long tables. The Mayor, Frank Coulter, and other officials were present. The evening was a success.

QUAKES OF EARTH CAUSE BIG LOSS.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

SANTA BARBARA, July 28.—Last night the earth shook so violently in some parts of this county that people fled in terror from their homes, and considerable destruction of property resulted. The quake came at about 10:15 o'clock, and was the most severe in this section in many years. In Santa Barbara it was barely felt, there being only a slight tremor, but at other places there were damaging disturbances.

Los Alamos Valley suffered greatly, as the seismic distress centered there, and the loss will amount to many thousands of dollars. There were fifteen distinct shocks in that region, some of them the hardest since the Lompoc mission was destroyed, nearly a hundred years ago. About half way between Los Alamos and Lompoc is believed to have been nearly the exact center, and the most extensive losses are the Western Union Oil Company, Los Olivos merchants and Lompoc residents.

ORENA ADOBE GONE.—The old Orena adobe, a landmark for many years, not far from Los Alamos, was destroyed, the four walls crumbling and tumbling. The Orena adobe, built by the Orena family, was a fine specimen of adobe architecture. It was built by the Orena family, and was a fine specimen of adobe architecture. It was built by the Orena family, and was a fine specimen of adobe architecture.

CARRAGE OIL DISASTER.—The pumping plant and station of the Western Union Oil Company are on the Carrage ranch about four miles from Los Alamos. Two oil tanks, holding 2800 barrels each, and full at the time, were demolished and one of them thrown seven feet into the air. The fire was caused by a leak in the pump, and the oil was ignited. The loss is estimated at $15,000.

EARTH TORN UP.—The earth has been strangely torn and cracked in many places in the valley. Along the road from Los Alamos for several miles are estimates and deep fissures. Nothing of this kind was noted in local seismic disturbances heretofore. Perhaps the most singular phenomenon is in the vicinity of Harris Station, where an old creek bed, dry for years, was converted into a rushing stream. The water suddenly came from a hole in the earth, and the water is still flowing.

FIFTH WEEK OF RACE FOR SCHOLARSHIPS.

LEADING CANDIDATES KEEPING UP A STEADY PACE.

Last Week Brought Unprecedented Results—Sixteen Contestants Share in Weekly Cash Distribution—Rivalry for Place is Growing Intense.

The fourth week of "The Times" scholarship contest, which closed last Saturday night, was the most exciting of the series and resulted in many changes in the score. All of the leading candidates greatly increased their total number of points, and some of those who were far down the list at the opening of the week were well up toward the top at the close.

The volume of business transacted during the week was far greater than that of any previous week, the contestants, as well as "The Times," sharing in the benefits. Blatant cheating was exposed, and a prize was awarded to the winner. The weekly cash distribution will take place today. Those who have failed to share in it may have better luck this week, if they try hard enough.

The fifth week of the contest opened very quietly, with the various candidates running very evenly in the same positions occupied at the close of last week, with a few exceptions. Those who have improved their standing in the last twenty-four hours are Mary O'Shea, who has increased her score by a few points, and Leo Buckley, who has exchanged places with Gertrude Ellis, and is now No. 2. Ethel Stone, who has moved up two numbers, and is now No. 3, and Lillian Harper, who has exchanged places with Gertrude Ellis, and is now No. 4.

Robert Edwards is pushing onward in his quiet way, and is receiving loyal support from his Occidental College friends, for they all want him back in the college.

LOMPOC JARRIED.—Lompoc was rudely awakened by the jar. The water main there is reported broken, and the cost of repairing may be extensive. The homes of W. H. Smith and Mrs. R. McDonald were damaged by toppling chimneys, and many other houses were similarly battered. Windows generally are broken. The brick building occupied by the Saunders drug store was considerably injured. The stores all suffered from minor breakages. On the Wise ranch two water tanks were destroyed. The damage to Lompoc cannot be estimated, but it does not fall heavily upon any individual. It was a night and a day of suspense for the timid and nervous.

SHOCKS LAST EVENING.—It had been feared that there would be more shocks today, and this evening at 4:30, and again at 5:30 slight trembles were felt at Los Alamos. There is much uneasiness in anticipation of more. The time of the first shock there Sunday night was 10:15. It lasted about thirty seconds, and followed one another in rapid succession. They became almost panic stricken. Fifteen shocks were felt, three of which were very severe. Within twenty minutes of the first shock four distinct quakes occurred, the third being the most severe. It was followed by another, followed by one at 3:40 a.m., another at 4:10, which was most severe, though short. At 5:10 a.m. occurred a short but hard one, followed by others at 7:40, 8:20 and the last one at 11 o'clock this morning. Nearly every house in Los Alamos is reported to have been shaken, and many of the houses, remained in the streets all last night.

FELT IN SAN LUIS OBISPO.—SAN LUIS OBISPO, July 28.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were experienced in this place last night. The first and heaviest of the two occurred at 10:17 p.m., and had a duration of thirty seconds. The second occurred at 11:05 o'clock this morning, and lasted three seconds. The general direction of both disturbances was east and west.

OMAHA, July 28.—An earthquake shock which was general over portions of Nebraska, western Iowa and South Dakota occurred shortly before 1 o'clock today. The seismic disturbances were felt at a large number of towns in the three States, and lasted for about ten minutes. The damage has been reported in many places. The shock was sufficient to rattle dishes and affect bell towers in some places.

Yankton, S. D., reports a shock of twelve seconds duration, and Santee, Nebraska, reports a shock of ten seconds duration. The disturbance was most plainly felt at the Santee station, where the water suddenly came from a hole in the earth, and the water is still flowing.

DADLY TETSE FLY. AN INSECT PROBLEM. DESTROYER OF ITS OWN SOURCE OF FOOD.

Its Sting is Fatal to Horses and Cattle, on Whose Blood It Feeds—This Non-purposive Characteristic is a Puzzle to Scientists.

[Felix L. Oswald in Cincinnati Enquirer.] The destroyers of the Transvaal have brought home some undeniable curiosities in their notebooks, as well as in their haversacks, and Dr. Archibald Jones of Kitchener's medical staff, has published an interesting monograph on a "South African Paradox"—the cattle-killing tsetse fly.

What on earth can be the purpose of this horrible accomplishment? The tsetse fly is a blood-sucking insect, and the colonists of the African coast lands. What object can its existence be supposed to subserve in the economy of the animal kingdom?

Purposely a Darwinian snigger, science has got rid of the idea that this whole planet was created for the benefit of a special breed of catarrhine monkeys, and an endowment serves the interests of its possessors, that is quite enough to explain their existence, on the theory of the survival of the fittest.

But even the hypothesis, it now seems, cannot be made to account for the ravages of the winged cattle destroyer. Gordon Cummings and other travelers, inclined to the opinion that the tsetse fly kills cows and horses as the tsetse fly kills cattle, have been unable to provide a feast for its young. The victims of these wasps can be seen moving along in a series of convulsions, to escape the foe that has already inoculated them with a number of tiny eggs, but the tsetse fly persists, and before the end of a month the wasp-maggots have eaten all but the wall of their traveling boat-tanks. The body of the caterpillar has been reduced to a skin held together by the rivets of the little feet.

CREATES TERROR.—The weight of cow exceeds that of a caterpillar about a million times, but in the presence of the winged death dealer they are equally helpless. At the sight of the approaching fly cattle often seem to go crazy. Fear, instinct informs them of their peril, and they will dash away, belching and kicking, to plunge into the next thicket, or roll on the ground, working their hoofs and tail brush desperately, and lastly, if they are not able, the fly contrives to settle, sticks long enough to suck itself full and then departs as from a task accomplished.

What good will it do the little blood-sucker that its prey will die to the tsetse fly? The tsetse fly does not know that. It only knows that it is hungry, and it will feed on the blood of any animal it can find.

NO REMEDY FOR STING.—There is no remedy for the results of a tsetse sting, and the results show symptoms of distress, within forty-eight hours, and perish of a disorder resembling a swiftly-developing influenza or rinderpest. As an offset to this, a little gray fly has secured one drop of blood—perhaps the ten-thousandth part of an ounce. One milch cow, the valuable animal, has been killed in this way. It is a pity that the tsetse fly should be so destructive to the human race, and that it should be so difficult to destroy.

Notice to Concrete Contractors.—Office of the Arrowhead Reservoir Company, San Bernardino, California. Sealed bids for the lining with concrete of the Gate Shaft of the Arrowhead Reservoir, the property of the Arrowhead Reservoir Company will be received at this office until 2 o'clock p.m. on August 1, 1922. At which time they will be opened. A certified check for 5 per cent. of the amount of the proposal must be on file, and in accordance with plans and specifications now on file, in this office. All proposals must be endorsed "Proposal for the Gate Shaft of the Arrowhead Reservoir, San Bernardino, California, and addressed to Victor Smith, Vice-President of the Arrowhead Reservoir Company, San Bernardino, California. The Company reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Cures Men by Scientific Methods.

My methods of treating men's diseases should not be classed with the every day routine process commonly employed. My methods are scientific, distinctive and absolutely successful. I make the above statement boldly because I am demonstrating the truth of it every day and all the time. I have put in 17 years curing thousands upon thousands of a very few kinds of diseases. If a dozen doctors have failed to cure you it is no argument against my success in your case. I have built up the largest practice in California on curing men who have been through unsuccessful treatment by others. If I accept a man's case he can rest assured of a certain and lasting cure. There is no other institution so thoroughly and completely equipped to make certain and rapid cures of men's diseases as ours. We were first to class diseases of men as a specialty. These diseases were treated by the family doctor and druggist up to our time 17 years ago, when I was introduced to the study of these diseases. I have since then devoted my life to the study of these diseases, and I have been successful in curing thousands of men who have been through unsuccessful treatment by others. I have the diplomas bearing the necessary certificates of specialists' work many years before any announcement by others. Weakness, Its Cause and Cure.

Nearly every man suffering from so-called "vital weakness" has at one time or another experienced the following symptoms: loss of energy, loss of interest in life, loss of ability to perform his duties, loss of ability to enjoy life, loss of ability to resist disease, loss of ability to recover from illness, loss of ability to live a normal life. These are the symptoms of "vital weakness," and they are the result of a diseased condition of the reproductive system. The cause of "vital weakness" is a diseased condition of the reproductive system, and the cure is a scientific method of treating these diseases.

Varicocele. Proofs of Cure.

One man in every four has Varicocele. Varicocele slowly and surely destroys the vitality of the man who has it. It causes a general feeling of weakness, loss of energy, loss of interest in life, loss of ability to perform his duties, loss of ability to enjoy life, loss of ability to resist disease, loss of ability to recover from illness, loss of ability to live a normal life. These are the symptoms of "vital weakness," and they are the result of a diseased condition of the reproductive system. The cause of "vital weakness" is a diseased condition of the reproductive system, and the cure is a scientific method of treating these diseases.

Disorders of the Prostate Gland.

I have found in a practice of seventeen years devoted exclusively to the treatment of the male, the most frequent cause of a chronic inflammation of the prostate gland, the center of the reproductive system, which is very rich in nerve endings, is a diseased condition of the reproductive system. The cause of "vital weakness" is a diseased condition of the reproductive system, and the cure is a scientific method of treating these diseases.

Contracted Disorders.

Include specific blood poison, venereal inflammation, stricture, discharge, loss of energy, loss of interest in life, loss of ability to perform his duties, loss of ability to enjoy life, loss of ability to resist disease, loss of ability to recover from illness, loss of ability to live a normal life. These are the symptoms of "vital weakness," and they are the result of a diseased condition of the reproductive system. The cause of "vital weakness" is a diseased condition of the reproductive system, and the cure is a scientific method of treating these diseases.

Kidneys and Bladder.

Inflammation and disease of the kidneys come on like a thief in the night. They are the result of a diseased condition of the reproductive system. The cause of "vital weakness" is a diseased condition of the reproductive system, and the cure is a scientific method of treating these diseases.

Contagious Blood Poison.

Every intelligent man knows something of the nature of contagious blood poison. It is a disease of the blood, and it is the result of a diseased condition of the reproductive system. The cause of "vital weakness" is a diseased condition of the reproductive system, and the cure is a scientific method of treating these diseases.

LIFE FROM THE AIR.

ST. VILVETTER, J. SMITH.

What shall the man do who finds himself in the "run-down" condition so common among brain workers who have neglected their physical health and burned life's candle "at both ends"?

He must look to nature and in conformity with her commandments, simplest methods of invigorating the human system devote himself with patient perseverance to repairing the shattered nervous system. What wonders can be accomplished with pure air, judicious exercise and proper food!

Article I shall describe a series of exercises, to be performed whenever pure air, or approximately pure air, is available. The purpose of these exercises is to guide the reader to life-giving oxygen from the air, awakening and stimulation of dormant or exhausted nerve centers.

TUESDAY, JULY 29, 1902.

BLACKMAIL IS CHARGED.

Victim of "Gold-brick" Game Complains.

Alleges the "Push" Got Money from Him.

Situation in His Home County Worries Gage and the Gang.

Charges of a serious nature are made against the Gage "push" managers who have been passing out "gold bricks" to candidates for county offices.

Blackmail is charged, and it is alleged that the purity of elections law has been violated in the hands of a local attorney, in which it is set forth that a candidate for county office has paid money to the "push" on the promise of machine support at the polls.
Other candidates say they have been approached in like manner, but that they have refused to enter into such deals. Candidates in the field who have been properly "milked" and who rely on the promises of the "push," are saying nothing.

The "gold-brick" industry is not new to the machine manipulators. It was shown up in The Times a few days ago, and the eyes of some candidates were opened as to the deception that is practiced on them. One of them, least, has found that his brick is made without straw, and that his only recourse is in the courts. Hence the making of his deposition charging blackmail. There are others who may follow suit.

Candidates who have run for office are thoroughly familiar with the "gold-brick" swindle, which is a part of the "push" as a means of raising money for campaign expenses and as a method of obtaining support for "push" candidates whose election is desired. There is a certain number of offices for distribution, and there usually are ten times as many candidates as there are offices. If the "push" can induce each of these candidates to believe that he will have the support of the machine, the unsuspecting office-seeker usually is willing to contribute a bunch of money, and he immediately rallies his friends to the support of himself and the machine. In this way the "push" thinks it will do the most good, and votes for the machine are gained from quarters where they could not be obtained in any other manner.
The desperation of the "push" in the present campaign has led it to hand out many more "gold bricks" this year than ever before, and it has come to pass that machine support is promised to candidates in the country. Should the "push" succeed in this manner in capturing the county and district conventions, there will be a sad awakening among the aspirants for office, and a comparison of notes will show that many were called but few were chosen.

A nice, fat county office is waiting bait to a man in the city, and it has given greater allurements for some quiet man in the country district who not only looks with longing on the salary attached thereto, but who aspires to the "honor" of being selected by his constituents as the proper man for the place.

A "push" manager, with all the assurance that appertains to the likeness to a man who is known to aspire to office and says:

"If you want to be Assessor or Clerk or Sheriff, or any one of the other offices in the county, can fix it for you. Choose your delegates to the county convention, and at the same time see that they will stand in the district convention for the nomination of Gage, and we will give you the office you want. Be sure they are for Gage, we will take care of you."

Those who think the "push" is all-powerful, and who do not distrust its promises, usually are not slow to jump at what they consider an easy way to get office. They also think that any money paid to the ringsters for nomination is well worth the cost, and they open it willingly.

When the convention comes, and the candidates find that similar promises have been made to several aspirants for the same office, they realize that they have been beautifully hoodwinked. The offices are passed out where they will do the most good, and the "gold-brick" purchasers are left out of the reckoning.

Several of the active workers against Gov. Gage have been approached lately by the "push," and promised good positions in the event of Gage's renomination.

GAGE GATES AJAR.

HEADQUARTERS ARE OPEN.

Gage headquarters in the Hotel Beck Hotel were opened yesterday, the Governor having returned in the morning from San Francisco, whither he went to attend a reception to officers of the Federalation of Labor, and incidentally to look after other political matters.

Gov. Gage expressed himself as well satisfied with conditions as he found them in the north, and said the prospects seemed good. He stated that he would take personal charge of the campaign here, and that he would devote his time and energy to it until after the primaries. He would not, however, what he thought of the prospects in Southern California, neither would he hazard a prophecy of how many delegates from Los Angeles county would be for him at the State convention.

The fact that he is not so certain of the outcome in this county is indicated in his declaration to devote his energies to swinging his own county into line.

Meantime the affairs of the Governor's office at Sacramento were, according to law, the Governor should be stationed, are running themselves.

PRIMARY REGISTRATION.

BOOKS CLOSE IN FIVE DAYS.

Registration for the primaries closes Saturday next, yet the number of voters who have placed their names on the Great Register is little more than half the estimated number who are entitled to cast ballots. Only those who are registered will be permitted to vote at the primaries, and the next five days probably will witness a deluge of registration affidavits from the various registry booths that are scattered about

PROMISES ARE CHEAP.

the city, and in every part of the Work on the Great Register began yesterday morning, when six young women were placing on nifty on the floor of Registration Clerk Magraw at the Courthouse. This body of clerks will be engaged for several months, copying the names of voters from the original affidavits and writing them in the clearest of longhand on the enormous roster. Luckless will be the man who desires to vote at any election, State, county, municipal, primary or general, who does not appear in this big book. Indices are in course of preparation of those registered in each precinct prior to the primary election of August 12, and will be printed immediately after the close of registration Saturday next. Indices will be furnished to the election officers in the various precincts, and the names shown thereon will represent those who are entitled to vote.

A saving of 40 per cent. has been effected this year in the printing of the indices. Where the cost was 10 cents per name two years ago, it is but 6 cents per name this year, a saving of no small amount when it is understood that the number of names runs into the tens of thousands.

"PUSH" IN DESPAIR.

MUST FLIMFLAM POMONA.

Managers of the Burns-Gage campaign in Pomona are in distress. Despite their clamoring and their efforts to arouse enthusiasm in that city for Gage, they have been in dire straits to hit upon a plan that would give them a district convention for the nomination of Gage. An emissary of the Gage campaign at Pomona was sent to Los Angeles a few days ago to consult with Walter Parker and other "push" managers as to the best methods to pursue. After some preliminary oversight, the "push" managers decided to knock the gang drivers hit on a plan.

"Go back and whip it up for Pardee and the Alameda county convention," said the emissary. "Give the people of your city to understand that you favor the nomination of the Alameda county convention, but see that you get Gage men on your delegation. Remember that; yell for Pardee, but vote for Gage. The people will think you are sincere in your support of Pardee, but you will see to it that the delegation is for Gage. This is the only hope, and we count on you to work the scheme cleverly, and to fool the voters."

Pomona therefore is about to hear much of a Pardee boom from this time forward, but the fraud is so transparent that it is only hope and the good for the Gage cause will be accomplished.

Senator Flint Encouraged.

Lester Robinson returned yesterday from San Francisco, where he met Senator Flint. The candidate for the gubernatorial nomination expressed pleasure and satisfaction at the progress of his campaign throughout the State, and said that gains in northern counties had been far more favorable than he had expected. From Nevada he brought the news of a reform that the entire delegation of twelve was assured for him, although half of them had been previously conceded to the Gage forces. With his customary diffidence, Senator Flint refrained from making extravagant claims, but did not conceal the encouragement that he feels over the situation.

Primary Ballots Ordered.

County Clerk Bell has ordered the ballots printed for use at the primary election of August 12. There will be four ballots, Republican, Democratic, Prohibition and Socialist. The first two will be 4x6 1/2 inches size, and the remainder will be considerably smaller.
Contrary to the expectation of some persons, no sample primary ballots are to be sent to voters, and those who do not inform themselves of the form that is to be used, may suffer confusion at the polls. For the purpose of spreading information, the Republican County Central Committee has issued several thousand ballots similar to those to be used at the primaries, and is circulating them among precinct committeemen and campaign managers. None of them, however, will be sent through the mail to voters, as is the practice at general elections.

QUITS THE LOOLOOS.

STATES THAT HE IS NOT IN GOOD CONDITION.

day—Ping-Pong Tournament at Aya-lon is Concluded and a Dark Horse Takes Championship Honor.

Pitcher Byron Hartwell of Morley's staff of ball players, resigned from the club yesterday morning. He gives as his reason that he is not in shape, owing to rheumatism contracted in the Northwest, and cannot do himself or the club justice.

The Lookout will leave this evening for their three weeks' trip to the north, and will be joined in San Francisco by Pitcher Mills, our new twirler, who passed through Truckee west bound yesterday morning. The team will take McPartlin, Jones and Gray along to do the pitching.

Courtesy.

A large meeting of courtesy men was held last night, and steps were taken to arrange for the courtesy to be held next Sunday at Santa Fe Park under the direction of the Los Angeles Courtesy Club. After officers were chosen, a number of speeches were made, there were a few songs, and revelations were served. The drawing for Sunday's stake will be held tomorrow night at No. 418 South Main street.

PING-PONG TOURNAMENT.

YOUTHFUL PLAYER WINS.

The unfinished ping-pong games which were begun Saturday at Avalon, were completed yesterday morning. In the final Holmes beat McCoy, 6-1, 4-3.
Salsbury beat Stevens, 6-4, 7-5, which brought Salsbury and Holmes together for the finals, when Salsbury won in three straight games, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

This tournament has attracted the greatest interest by reason of a number of the concededly best players in Southern California taking part in it, and when young Stuart Salsbury, hitherto unknown as a dangerous rival, entered the situation became complicated. Nevin has been looked upon as the champion of Southern California. Holmes is the champion of Pasadena, but Salsbury outplayed them on every point. The result was never in doubt after the first two or three games, the winner playing almost a phenomenal game and winning by dint of pure merit.

The ladies also finished their game yesterday. Miss Susie Howard beat Miss Houston Bishop, 6-3, 7-5; Miss Grace Collins beat Miss Mary Darling, 10-8, 6-4; Mrs. Marvin beat Miss Hope White, 4-5, 6-3, 6-0; Mrs. A. Hardenburg beat Miss Mary Mitchell, 4-1, 6-1; Miss Clara Walton beat Miss Charlotte Workman, 8-6, 6-4.

In the semi-finals, Miss Howard won from Miss Mellus by default, Mrs.
Hardenburg beat Miss Howard, 6-0, 6-2; Mrs. Marvin drew into the finals by a bye.

In the play-off in semi-finals, Mrs.
Hardenburg beat Miss Howard, 8-6, 2-6, 6-2.

In the finals Mrs. Marvin won from Mrs. Hardenburg, 2-6, 6-0, 6-3.

Mrs. Marvin, the winner of the ladies' tournament, is a native Los Angeles. Her father was Col. E. J. C.
Kewen of El Molino, at San Gabriel (more recently owned by the late E. L.
Maybury.) He was the first Attorney-General of the State of California, and held several responsible offices in the early days of this State, and the generous hospitality dispensed at his country seat, Mrs. Marvin was Miss May Kewen, and was well known to all old-timers until her marriage some years ago, since which time she has been living in Vancouver, B. C., but with her husband has returned to the southland, and is again a resident of Los Angeles.

WANTS FOR SOMEONE WHO NEVER COMES.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN IN BLACK IN THEATRE LOBBY.

Every Saturday Night She Appears and Watches Like a Lynx for Her Prey—Trouble is in Store for the Musing Man.

Every Saturday night, a mysterious woman in black waits in the lobby of the Orpheum.

She waits for something that never happens; she watches for someone who never comes. She is a mystery that excites the wildest curiosity in all the theatre people.

But she seems to be unconscious of their curious glances. She is unconscious of the crowds that flock by her.

Dainty women sweep past in a radiance of beautiful gowns, leaving her the sweet breath of perfume, but she takes no note.

The next Saturday night she is in the smoking and watch her with wondering interest, but she does not see them.

By and by, when their acts are done, she only sits and watches the street outside as a cat watches a mouse.

She is a trim, little lady, with a pinched, troubled face. She is little more than a girl. She cannot be more than 25. She always dresses in black.

She appeared first four or five weeks ago and took her seat in a chair hard sheltered from sight by one of the photograph displays. She sat there in one position all evening, never taking her eyes off the street and keeping well in behind her screen.

The next Saturday night she was in the same place and in the same position, doing the same thing. Both night she was there, and the show was over; she disappeared.

Hair Dressing.

In arrangement of coiffures men like to know that it is in fashion. If you have it done, Hamburger's you can be sure that it is. Scalp treatment, massage and manicuring, special features of this modern serial parlor for ladies.

Were you of the great crowd who good naturedly jostled and elbowed the way to some of the bargain counters yesterday where heaps upon heaps of remnants of choice merchandise were displayed for easy selection at about half what they usually sell for? More generous values you never saw in any store. Other remnant lines go on sale today; which together with the remainder of yesterday's offerings presents en masse more good things for very little money than you have believed possible.
